Session Summaries

Psalm 119: A Love Letter to Deuteronomy — Explore the poetic structure and emotion behind Psalm 119, discovering its deep roots in Deuteronomy’s themes. Bonus: meet “Ezra” and write a stanza of your own.

Tablet Carving and Plaster Inscribing — Step into ancient craftsmanship and recreate the visuals of covenant-making with stylus and stone. Learn why visuals mattered to a wandering people.

Governing with Incomplete Info — Ever tried to lead when no one agrees and the facts are fuzzy? In this simulation with “Caleb,” you’ll have to.

Party Planning: Feasts in the Law — What did God’s festivals taste, sound, and feel like? Plan a feast, recreate the vibe, and prep for the BBQ.

Jethro & Sons of Korah Teach Leadership — Engage in leadership crises with input from surprising sources: the outsider (Jethro) and the worship crew (Korah’s sons).

Law Love: Write Your Own Psalm 119 — Discover ancient poetic devices and practice writing your own modern take on covenant devotion.

Geography of Deuteronomy — 3D terrain, sand tables, and big maps. You’ll never read a location reference the same again.

Blessings & Cursings: The Original Carrot & Stick — Debate ancient motivational tactics with energy, drama, and live polls.

How to Bring Up Kings — What makes a godly leader? Dive into mentorship dynamics with “Samuel,” kingmaker and prophet.

Money Matters: Tithing & Debts — A budgeting lab that explores tithing rhythms, Sabbath years, and forgiveness economics.

Blessings & Cursings Roleplay — A wild team challenge where obedience earns resources and disobedience costs you.

Case Law Escape Room — You’re stuck in ancient Israel. Your only way out? Solve a puzzle based on God’s civil laws.

Tablet Carving Pt. 2: Wall of Commitment — Your group’s words carved into a permanent wall installation—a testimony and altar.

The Song of Moses (R&B/Eminem Style) — Write and perform a modern version of Moses’ final song. Mic provided.

Geography of Decision — Walk the map of Israel’s decision points and choose your own faith journey.

Simulating Sukkot & Passover — Tents, unleavened bread, and a mini Seder—experience what remembering really feels like.
